NO TRAINS FOR SEVERAL DAYS
Railroad Made Impassable by the Severe Winter of Fifty Years Ago—Drafting Unpopular and Ordered Stopped by Governor Buckingham—Small Cost of Street Lighting.

Drafting for the active militia fifty years ago did not prove a success. In many towns a large proportion of the men drafted, and in some towns all of them, escaped the draft by exemptions or paying $10. There was so much confusion and drafting that the selectmen were ordered by Governor Buckingham to suspend drafting. In Norwich 50 on the first draft were exempted, and in some towns all of them were drafted. After the order stopping the drafting S. R. Knapp started a volunteer militia company here.
